TODAY one question towers above all the rest. That dominant issue is endurance especially as it affects motor conomy. It commandeers attention to the virtual exclusion of all else. *

For men, who depend upon their cars for every day rapid transit, have come to know that endurance rules every phase of motor economy.

And the marked preference for Hudson that this standard of judgement made inevitable, is reflected upon every city street, upon every highway by which business men with country and suburban homes, travel to and

Note the great numbers of Hudson Coupes and Cabriolets. These two types are especially favored by busy men of consequence. Because they give luxurious, rapid conveyance in all weather and conditions of travel. And because their reliability is so sure and steadfast, that not even a remote concern visits the owner as to his certainty of destination, or the dependable use of his car when he wents it. "One

The supply of enclosed models, which we were able to secure as a reserve for the fall demand, will be totally inadequate to prevent a recurrence of last year's shortage. But we can, for the present, assure reasonably early delivery of a limited number of Coupes, Cabriolets, Touring Limousines and Limousines, on orders that are placed premptly.
